

You've heard every line there is, haven't you?
People giving you opinions that you don't want.
People telling you what to do with your body.
People telling you what to do with your life

I bet some of these lines sound familiar...

"You're the finest one out of all of these women!"

"You need a man who can treat you right."

"It's your body, you can do what you want with it!"

"Think of all the money you'll make!"

How you want to believe it! How you do believe it!
But why rely on the empty promises of men when you can rest in the everlasting promises of the One who has waited your whole life for you? Just like you, Jesus Christ knew temptation. He knew what it was to be drawn by the riches of the world. He knew what it was to be challenged by the ways of darkness. He was not immune from our pain and suffering. He was human and He understands our weaknesses.

And of course, I'm sure you've also heard at least one well meaning person in your life shame you for your profession. It usually goes something like this:

"You shouldn't be parading yourself around like that! or

"You're going to hell if you don't change your ways!"

Let's face it, the real issue here is not how you earn your living.

The real issue is the condition of your heart.

Everybody wants something from you, don't they?
Everybody expects something from you and you're use to it because it comes with the territory. But Jesus doesn't operate that way. He's already purchased your salvation for you. He paid for it with His own blood when He gave His life on the cross for your sins. It's not about what He wants from you.

It's about what He did for you.
Nothing you can do will earn your way into heaven.

*"For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, that no one should boast."
(Ephesians 2:8-9)*

So, why would He care about a woman like you?
Simple. Because you are His little girl!
You are His child and He loves you!

Want to know how to receive His love? First, don't buy the lie that you're not worthy. YOU are the reason that Jesus gave His life. He chose to do that for you. All you have to do is choose Him.

Ask Him to come into your heart. Invite Him into your life! Believe in Him...He believes in you. He's been waiting for you to take your eyes off of the things of the world long enough to understand how much He really loves you. He'd give anything for your love...even His life.
"For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life."
(John 3:16)

You've heard the promises of other men and you may have believed them. But He promises to,
"never leave you nor forsake you."
(Deuteronomy 31:8)
and HE MEANS IT!
He has NO ulterior motives for loving you!
"...He delivered me because He delighted in me."
(Psalm 18:19)

So use this opportunity to delight in Him!
Take a few moments from your day and talk to Him.
Ask Jesus to come into your life, after all,
He doesn't want much....just your heart.
Won't you give it to Him?
